

Xue Fan Wu
NT615
3/10/2023

5-3-1 Chapter 10 on Fee & Stuart

Questions

1. What is the meaning of prophet?
2. What is one of the 4 functions or roles of prophets?
3. What is one reason a concentrated prophet writings occurred during 760BC to 460BC?
4. "A knowledge of the _____, _____, and _____, therefore, when they are known, contributes _____ to your ability to _____ an oracle."(p192)
5. What is one of the three styles of repetitive style of Old Testament poetry?

Answers

1. Prophets speaks for God for their own contemporaries.
2. One of the role is that they are covenant enforcement mediators.
3. One reason was due to "unprecedented political, military, economic, and social upheaval."(p191)
4. "A knowledge of the date, audience, and situation, therefore, when they are known, contributes substantially to your ability to comprehend an oracle."(p192)
5. One of those styles is synonymous parallelism where the second line repeats or reinforce the first line.

Terms

1. Prophetes minores: prophets shorter not less important
2. Orthodoxy: correct belief
3. Orthopraxy: correct action

Summary

This chapter shows us the basic of prophecy and the prophets. It's intention is not solely of future but mainly of telling its contemporaries about its commitment with their covenant with God and to follow it. We need to understand that time period, the audience, and the situation so we can have better understanding then we can apply it correctly to us. Prophets and prophecies are ways that God warn us so we can live a life that God wants us to live.