

Jordan Mack

Professor O'Hara

HIS114

20 March 2023

3 Things I Learned

I learned about:

- The alliance system and that war was good for a nation were the reasons for the start of World War I.
- That 15 million people were killed from the war but disease killed more than 3x the amount of people.
- Also soldiers' writings and letters told us how brutal and horrible the war was and that the worst fear was being shelled.