1). Where did this book “take you apart?” How did God use it in “spiritual surgery?” (please use quotes & page numbers)?

This book took me apart in page 76, Introduction to Serving, the quote: “God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.” It made me think about how God sacrificed a lot of things, so we could live a good life with everything we need. I’m very thankful for that with God and that’s another reason to be faithful on God.

2). Where did you agree most with the author? Disagree most?

I agree with the author in his beliefs and what he thinks about God, that he can be a loving, caregiver, protector and forgiving being, but he can also be very strict and punishing.

3). What was the key spiritual truth you gleaned from this book? How are you integrating it into your personal spiritual formation process?

The key spiritual truth I gleaned from this book is daily practicing mindfulness and gratitude, that means every time try to be calmed and thankful with God. I learned to appreciate all what life gives me no matter how small it is.
