

Xue Fan Wu
NT615
3/21/2023

5-3-1 Chapter 6 on Kaiser & Silva

Questions

1. Approximately how many direct quotes from the OT were found in the NT?
2. What is one fulfilled prophecy from the Old testament about the Messiah?
3. “The events of the Old Testament are not to be viewed as a succession of incidental happenings; instead, they are to be seen as a _____ of occurrences that exhibit a strong sense of _____, _____, and a _____ plan that has been orchestrated by the providence of the living God.”(p103)
4. What is one function of typology in regard to exegesis?
5. “The New Testament’s use of a combination of Old Testament passages actually argues more for _____ than for diversity.”(p104)

Answers

1. Approximately 300 direct citations were found.
2. One fulfilled prophecy is Jesus being pierced as stated in Zach. 12:10 fulfilled in John 10:37.
3. “The events of the Old Testament are not to be viewed as a succession of incidental happenings; instead, they are to be seen as a sequence of occurrences that exhibit a strong sense of connectivity, purpose, and a divine plan that has been orchestrated by the providence of the living God.”(p103)
4. Typology “can enhance the already completed exegesis by further illustrating its truths with examples and historical correspondences.”(p104)
5. “The New Testament’s use of a combination of Old Testament passages actually argues more for unity than for diversity.”(p104)

Terms

1. typology: “Is an illustration or a pattern of God’s activity in the history of his people Israel and the church through persons, events or institutions.”(p103)
2. Qumran: A [place where Dead Sea Scrolls were found.
3. Bag Hammadi: A gnostic texts.

Summary

The New Testament accurately use the Old Testament(OT). There are many citations used in the New Testament(NT) to describe the fulfillment of the OT. Not only were it use it portrays a unity of message by Jesus but the writers use OT citations to show that it was foretold in the OT. Without the OT the NT could not stand on its own.