I really did not pay attention in History when I went to school. Nevertheless, the three I learned from watching the Video on Archduke, Cynicism, and WWI is how it all started with the assassination of Franz Ferdinand in Sarajero to free Bosnia and Herzegovina. I had to really research this. The second thing I learned was Austria issued an ultimatum to Serbia to accept some of the demands against Serbia. And lastly the main reason the war was because of duty, nationalism, loyalty, and fear of being shot for desertion.
