

Worksheet 4: Rough Draft

Fill in this worksheet with the information required. DO not worry about connective language. Just get the information down. Make sure you include citation information for all quotes in parenthesis so that the information does not get lost as you are copying and pasting. The final copy will have citations in footnotes per Chicago formatting.

Introduction

- Hook
  - With the emerging of new gender identities and the increase of youth identifying with these new gender identities the next generation of leadership faces a challenge

- Problem or Challenge
  - Do we show love to the LGTBQ+ community and walk with them in their journey or do we reject them until they change

- Topic discussion
  - Homosexuality

- Preliminary Information
  - Key terms, definitions, any information the audience needs to be successful.
    - Homosexuality:
    - Gender:
    - Sexuality
    - Heterosexual:

- Thesis: Your focus within the topic
  - For many years the church has treated homosexuality as the unforgivable sin giving homosexuals no hope for redemption. However, the bible is clear that we are all sinners and in need of the love of Christ. How then as the body of Christ can we bring hope to the homosexuals while at the same time help them change?
  -

Theological Framework: The theology and scriptures of the topic

- Key Statement on Theology of Topic

The bible teaches that there are only two genders in God's original design for humankind. However, because of the fall of creation in Genesis, God's plan has been distorted and humanity has gone astray from God's will and plan.

- Proof:

- Genesis 1:27, Romans 1:27-28

- Primary Scriptures

- Exegete

- Leviticus 18:22; Romans 1:27; 1 Corinthians 6:9-11;

- explain

Literature Review: Who emerged as the top voices of this topic?

- Scholar Opinion

- Scholar Identification

- Summary of position

- Review of position

- Scholar Opinion

- Scholar Identification

- Summary of position

- Review of position

- Scholar Opinion

- Scholar Identification

- Summary of position

- Review of position

Your Proposed Thesis

1. Key Statement

- a. Proof & Quotes

2. Key Statement

a. Proof & Quotes

3. Key Statement

a. Proof & Quotes

Conclusion

- Restatement
- Passion
- Vision
- Call to Action