

(Pages 732 & 735)

For your assignment, you will write one paragraph explaining each of these ideologies centered on 1) what did this ideology promote in society, and what were their idealistic goals? & 2) what did this ideology stand against? You will use China & Russia as communist examples and Italy as a fascist example, staying in the first half of the 20th century. There is enough in your text to create your summary, if you do use other sources, do not copy and paste (!! ) and list the web site consulted.

That ideology showed society that everyone had equal rights. No matter what ethnicity or what beliefs you had it showed society that everyone had fundamental rights. Their idealistic goals was to bring peace and have equal rights. They wanted people to be treated better and the right way. I think the main thing they really wanted in terms of goals was peace and security rather than resorting to war. They thought it was the right way to solve everything. They believed that war was the solution to everything.
