<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Counseled Soldiers with Personal Problems/ Life Issues • Organized, Prepared and Facilitated Chaplain Candidate Meeting • Created PowerPoint Presentation for Chaplain Candidate Meeting • Communicated with Leadership in four Units regarding how the Unit Ministry Team can best support their Soldiers and identified Soldiers struggling with issues that need immediate contact • Studied materials on “Army Spiritual Resilience Training” in preparation to serve as Co-Instructor with Chaplain Supervisor/Mentor in upcoming Unit training • Began intense training on “Religious Accommodation in the U.S Army which will result in my serving as the Briefer during Command Briefing 	As Chaplain Asomugha continues to walk alongside me during this Field Education experience, I realize that I have become more comfortable in my position as Chaplain Candidate. He continues to be very supportive and is not only setting me up to serve as a Chaplain but is also prepping me for Chaplain Basic Officer Leadership Course which I will have to take within the next year. I have to admit that I am really proud of my willingness to get out of my (beloved) comfort zone. My response to anything that my Mentor asks of me is “Yes, Chaplain”. I am so humbled to be in the position that I am in and am trying to learn so much in the time that I have as CH Asomugha as my Mentor. I am encouraged and keep meditating on Romans 8:30: Moreover whom He predestined, these He also called; whom He called, these He also justified; and whom He justified, these He also glorified. He has called me to do a good work and what he has started...he will finish!

MEETING (S) WITH MENTOR (S) || TOPICS OF DISCUSSION || REFLECTIONS

During my weekly meeting with my Chaplain Supervisor/ Mentor he informed me that this was the month and April where I will continue to take faith-filled risks and get out of my comfort zone! In support of this I will continue to lead prayer during religious services, Serve as the Briefer for the Command Briefings (which entails briefing the Brigade Commander, a Lieutenant Colonel!) and also serving a Co-Instructor for mandatory Unit training on Army Spiritual Resilience. He has also made me Team Leader for the two other Chaplain Candidates in our Unit. He expressed his confidence in me serving in that position and I will not let him down.
