Dear Joseph,

Thank you for contacting my office on this important matter; your voice is part of a critical and ongoing conversation in our community and Washington. As your public servant and fellow community member, I am committed to uplifting your voice. Working together, we must create a more just and sustainable country where every person has access to quality education, health care, and housing.

Participation is the cornerstone of our democracy, and contacting me to communicate your concerns, policy stances, and ideas is essential to my job as your elected official. My office will look into this matter and contact you concerning any updates we may have. Please submit your comment here if you would like to receive a response from my office on this issue.

It is the honor of a lifetime to represent you and our neighbors in New York's 14th Congressional District. Again, thank you for contacting my office on this important matter. I look forward to working with you to empower our community.

If you would like to stay up to date on how I am representing you in Washington and New York, please sign up for our newsletter here.

Thank you!

Sincerely,

Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez
Member of Congress
