Homework Assignment

1. If I was Hailey's friend, the responsibilities I would have for helping her would be not to ignore the situation or to even assume that is not my business but as an act of friendship if I notice and see the abuse that I offer help by showing her that I care and I want to figure out a way for her to be free from the abuse and show her that she doesn't deserve this lifestyle as well as showing her that is not love because love you respect one another. Those that are victims of abuse needs to make a decision on what she wants to do because I can support her and be there for her every step of the way but if Hailey does not make a decision she will be in a constant cycle.

2. If I was Dan's friend, I might say to alter his behaviors is that is I would be direct and tell him the actions of what he is doing and what he saying is not right not with an attitude but with a tone knowing that I am serious. "I would say to him what is the root to all of his anger as to why do you throw all your rage onto a women?" She did nothing to you and all she is trying to do is truly love you because when she chose you is because she saw something in you and knew she wanted to be with you. If he insists I would push harder to grab his attention and shake him up.

3. This concept of reflected appraisal discussed in chapter 9 is applied in this case because when Hailey fell and drop her papers immediately Dan says that she was clumsy she believed it so everything he says she believes she's that. She stated that "he's a guy and says what he thinks" she is giving him access of walking all over her.
