1). Where did this book “take you apart?” How did God use it in “spiritual surgery?” (please use quotes & page numbers)?

Pretty much the entire time I have been reading it took me apart in which an obstacle occurred and or a discipline through the spirit and and then a practice to help me understand the different parts of the spiritual journey, in order to identify roadblocks and learn how to navigate through life with God. In the book chapter 4 “ brokenness traps us into destructive patterns which eventually destroys much of what is good” (Terry). When one is broken or going through something little by little, character is destroyed. We tend to create patterns that are not always good for us.

2). Where did you agree most with the author? Disagree most?

I agree with the quote because me as an individual have dealt with brokenness and I know a lot of people do as well. We create good patterns when we are prospering and with the help of God except when people go through tough times they tend to create hurting patterns that can affect us.

3). What was the key spiritual truth you gleaned from this book? How are you integrating it into your personal spiritual formation process? My identity in Christ is what stuck with me, meaning my relationship with God and the way he loves us and is the true identity of ourselves as we are made in the image of God.
