I provide technical assistance as our gatherings occur via Zoom. In addition, I led this month reflection on Philip in Max Lucado’s “They Walked with God”. 1hr. 30 minutes – Check-in w/Lynn	Needed rest this morning and arrived early for prayer and not set-up. As the days and weeks pass by I am acutely aware of the gradual changes and shifts that occurring within me. I am more intentional and focused about how I serve in this season. During the end of 2022 and early 2023 Pastor Lou announced the launch of At the Table I must admit I was not crazy about it because it is a lot of work done by a minority to serve the majority. I think with my new mindset I was able to serve with more excellence and remember that Jesus came to serve. ACE has been dormant for a season and my meeting with Pastor Christian was about the relaunch of a new Cohort of D101 – which is discipling our new members in the things of God. Pastor Christian then asked me about being the led for D101 which basically means I would take over all administrative tasks of the program. I was both humbled and honored to have been asked and I graciously accepted; it truly is amazing to see how God is using me in this season. Sometime in February - Pastor Arlene approached me about doing a reflection based on one of the biblical characters in They Walked with God By: Max Lucado I picked the story of Philip and the Eunuch from Acts 8:36-37. in this season of revival how important the Holy Spirit is and why we must seek him. The time with the ladies were well spent and I was able to gear the reading around these three questions which the ladies responded well to. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Who do you think is different from you? 2. What is the one place in your life God is leading you to? 3. Who is the Ethiopian in your life?

FIELD EDUCATION The Log

This week I meet with both Pastor Lou and Lynn – Pastor Lou gave challenge and push back on my personal goals – he felt although better and good that in his opinion they did not align with where it was that ABBA was taking me. Lynn reminded me that I am the task manager and not to water down what the Holy Spirit is doing in my life; she was also very happy to learn about my new role with A.C.E and has agreed to help me become more task orientated.
