

Aurellia Hodge

Prof. Beverley Crawford-Locke

College Writing English 101

28, March 2023

Look Both ways

Look both ways is a Romance fantasy movie Distributed by Netflix. April Prosser writes about Natalie, an animator college student who has a five-year plan for her life but one night she decides to have sex with best friend Gabe which she thinks could possibly ruin her plan. Wanuri Kahiu the director of the film decides to show the viewer both ways of the decision of how her life goes if chooses to keep the baby or not. This gives the viewer a critical emotional viewpoint of how they can reflect on their lives and see that no matter what mistake or decision they make you still have the chance to make their rlife important to you.