

FIELD EDUCATION
The Log

Week # 6

Hours This Week: 10.5 Total Hours: 324 / 360

HOURS SPENT / TASKS & ACTIVITIES	REFLECTIONS    JOURNALING    THOUGHTS    PROCESSING
1.5 hours / Staff Prayer meeting	Grace led a really joyful and heartfelt devotional and prayer time in Psalm 86. We focused on praising God and making time for him. Sometimes I feel like I am always harping on soul care and spiritual formation, but I love learning how deeply the staff at Bridges love God and prioritize him. I like getting to know how they relate to God.
2 hours / Mentor Meeting	Lauren and I discussed a strategy for our Tandon campus. She also helped me brainstorm how/if I should meet with a professor who seems to have a lot of hubris. Encounters with this professor have been stressful for me, and I appreciated that Lauren took time to think about it with me and to encourage me in that she doesn't think I'm crazy – which is easy to feel since all the other students at AU seem to love this professor, which is why I haven't known if I should say something.
3 hours / Staff Meeting	At the weekly staff meeting, Grace delegated a task to me. In the past, I hated it when they gave me projects, haha. But I really appreciated that they thought to ask me about this. I like the responsibility of it, but I also like the topic and how I will have to prepare.
2 hours / Discipleship with Nancy	Nancy and I met for our first official discipleship meeting. We discussed her spiritual formation process. We also discussed her church life and an upcoming retreat. I was deeply encouraged by Nancy's deep faith. She just met Jesus, but she is totally captivated by him. She doesn't know that much about him, but she knows enough to totally trust him. Her faith caused me to look at my faith and ask why I demand so much explanation from Jesus all the time.
2 hours / Lunch with Mehul	Mehul was in my small group at Tandon last semester, but we haven't started the small group again this semester because there aren't any other staffers to help me, and I don't have as much time. I was surprised that Mehul reached out to me, but he wanted

FIELD EDUCATION
The Log

	to catch up. It was fun to hear about his life. Honestly, I wasn't sure how to lead the conversation into something very spiritual. I shared a bit about my spiritual life with God, but I didn't wander into his life with God very deeply. I realized I still need to learn more about evangelism with Indian students.
--	--

MEETING(S) WITH MENTOR(S)    TOPICS OF DISCUSSION    REFLECTIONS
Lauren and I discussed a strategy for our Tandon campus. She also helped me brainstorm how/if I should meet with a professor who seems to have a lot of hubris. Encounters with this professor have been stressful for me, and I appreciated that Lauren took time to think about it with me and to encourage me in that she doesn't think I'm crazy – which is easy to feel since all the other students at AU seem to love this professor, which is why I haven't known if I should say something.