

Michelle Murray

Alliance University

A 43-year-old female with stroke and Diabetic

Patient: J. C.

NURSING DIAGNOSIS

Risk for fall

Related to having stroke the patient was weak left side.

ASSESSMENT

Patient alert and oriented x 3

Patient has left side weakness.

Patient connect to cardiac monitor.

Patient allergic to fish

Patient is continent and void in bathroom.

DOCUMENT DATA

Patient has stroke and diabetic.

Patient is on cardiac monitor 24 hrs.

Patient receive Physical therapy.

Patient was referred to Rehab.

BP: 116/83 P: 108 RR: 18 TEMPS: 98.2

Nursing Intervention

Patient received finger stick 4x per day.

Patient received Insulin.

Patient received Physical Therapy

Patient will receive Occupational Therapy

Heart rate monitor attached to the patient.

EXPECTED OUTCOME

Patient display improved cerebral perfusion

Inability to move the left side of the body.

Patient will be able to walk after going to Rehab.

Patient will receive finger stick 4x per day.

EVALUATION

Pt goal was not met because I left before discharge.