

Final Paper Proposal

An Old Testament text that is used by the New Testament writers as prophetic of Christ Jesus.

“The Spirit of the Sovereign LORD is on me,
because the LORD has anointed me
to proclaim good news to the poor.
He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted,
to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners,^[a] ² to proclaim the year of the LORD’s favor and the day of vengeance of our God,
to comfort all who mourn,” Isaiah 61:1-2

“The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free, to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.”
Luke 4:18-19

This paper will study the same passage that occurred in two different Testaments. By comparing their historical and cultural context, the intention of both authors is to present the flow of the theme in both Testimonies to get theological reflections and bring the application to our current ministry context. The outline is as follows:

1. Introduction
2. Study the passage from Isaiah
 - a. Historical and cultural context
 - b. Literal study (Word, sentence, genre)
 - c. What does it mean?
 - d. Reflect theologically
3. Study the passage of Luke
4. The relationship between two passages
5. Application to today’s context
6. Conclusion
