Freewrite for 15 minutes in one sitting about one of these topic: “Which topic am I choosing, and what do I think my viewpoint will be?”

From the list of titles or topics I have read, I have a desire to write on “A Good Man is Hard to Find” by Flannery O’Connor because I found her stories very interesting and the different interpretations that can be derived from the same article. This made me remember an article on social media where the letter “w” was held and one person said they saw “the letter M and another said they saw “the number 3.”

I think my viewpoint will be to choose the main character in “Jesus Thrown Everything Off Balance”: Grace and Redemption” in O'Connor's “A Good Man is Hard to Find,” give my own interpretation of the character in context, share my experience of the grace and redemption of Christ in my life, and show why Jesus can throw everything off balance being the supreme one, the Alpha and Omega.
