

5-3-1 Assignment- Gonzalez CH. 7

Edward Brereton

QUESTIONS

1. Open warfare exploded in Bohemia after the episode that is known as what?
2. What revolution in England led to civil war and the execution of King Charles the first?
3. What did the debates among Catholics have to do with?
4. What were the two high points of Reformed orthodoxy?
5. Who founded Methodism?

ANSWERS

1. Open warfare exploded in Bohemia after the episode that is known as the defenestration of Prague.
2. The revolution in England that led to a civil war and the execution of King Charles the first was the Puritan Revolution.
3. The debates among Catholics had to do with the authority of the pope and the relationship between grace and human participation in salvation.
4. The two high points of Reformed orthodoxy were the Synod of Dort and the Assembly of Westminster.
5. John Wesley and his brother Charles founded Methodism.

TERMS

Puritan- People who sought for the church to be purified of all the accretions and superstitions of Roman Catholicism

Protectorate- The position of office of a protector

Arminianism- A doctrine that gives participation to the believer in the order of salvation

SUMMARY

Chapter seven covers the events of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries highlighting the bloody wars that were fought mostly between the Catholics and Protestants. All of these wars were motivated by the low tolerance of the various orthodoxies where every detail of doctrine was of high importance. The chapter ends with the mention of the Great awakening which took place in the eighteenth century. This movement swept the colonies and led them toward a sense of unity that would eventually turn them into a single nation.