

- So far in Acts 1 and 2, The main information we have to know is Hamlet is set on taking revenge on whoever killed his father. He is willing to do anything to make sure the revenge occurs. Hamlet is not a fan of his mothers getting married for the second time. This drawing is the scene of Hamlet speaking to the ghost of his father and telling him about his revenge plan. Hamlet makes a plan that will prove to him that claudius is guilty of his fathers murder. The play will show his fathers death and claudius will realize and show visible signs of his guilt. Hamlet is betrayed by 2 of his friends and they were hired by claudius himself. Hamlet is acting out even towards ophelia, he needs closure for what happend to his father or else he will never rest and have peace.

← Hamlet