

The Independence Day Movie

Independence Day is about a historical event that saved the world from elimination. The movie shows that the whole earth is in danger of an alien attack that could destroy all the earth. Humankind finds out about the threat several hours before aliens start invading and destroying the earth. The film is talking about the 4th of July which is day for the independence of the whole earth not only America. All people from the planet fight against this disaster together. The movie shows the saviors' team are equipped, they have fighter pilot, and there is a smart scientist with them. This movie also shows an essential figure that is the president who gave a speech about the battle of aerial that was a great battle in the history of mankind. People were terrified of hearing this news, because the president was young and the believes were that the president must be enough mature to deal with this kind of crises. But the president had to work against the public's opinion to make a plane to save the world. At the end of the film president gave a speech and said to people "good morning" to show public that he is one of them and is connected to them. He didn't want to show himself higher than any person in the public. He then continued about how it is important that all people should come together and fight against the aliens. He talked in this way to achieve the trust of people and said America once has fight for its freedom and will fight again. This speech connected the president with people that allowed the society and the president to fight together against the aliens.

After the president become assured of bad nature of the aliens, he attacked to them and saved the world. In this movie show that the US leadership has a great role in saving people and world. Also the fear that people had also led them to cooperate in this mission and to become successful.

Also movie show about relation of human to human as the aliens were destroying the cities people were helping each other. It showed that all the level of a society are connected to each other.

The movie is based on science-fiction, but it has another concept. If we see it from the hierarchy aspect the movie show that the United States has the most powerful leader and from the network aspect it shows that there is an international community that if they need to fight against one treat, they will come together and will fight against that enemy.
