The "Christ" in Paul's letters

In this week's primary text, Paul spoke on the many things Christ did through him, for him, and how his primary job is to preach the gospel. He also pointed out how we are to move forward in the faith, how we are to live and behave in Christ, the law, spiritual wisdom, unity, division and so on. Paul was one of the most influential leaders of the early church and played a crucial role when it came to spreading the gospel to the gentiles. Paul never denied the conventional sense of Christ but instead gives applicable principles for the Jewish messiah text. The article mentions how the Jews took offense when Paul preached the crucified messiah because he was the crucified messiah nothing more or less. The Jews also rejected Jesus because in their eyes and according to their understanding of the Messiah, he failed to do what they expected their messiah to do which was to destroy evil and their enemies, establishing an eternal kingdom with Israel being the greatest nation in the world. The Jews studied the scriptures but didn't know who their messiah was. The scriptures the Jews studied spoke about the coming messiah. Paul did use a speech which came from the Jewish scriptures as the article mentions.
