

Stephanie Belizaire-Desamours

1233 5th Street West Babylon, NY 11704

C: (646) 287-7889

Sbelizaire@schools.nyc.gov

---

EXPERIENCE

Department of Education

Alliance University, New York, NY

Student Teacher

Queens Village, NY

January 2023- May 2023

- Develops and implements unit lessons plans for 1-6 grade, administered tests and evaluations, analyzed student's performance and areas of need.
- Foster a positive classroom environment encouraging learning and promoting student growth while developing an excellent rapport with students and staff.
- Common Core standards (CCSS) Universal Design for Learning, incorporated into all subjects and lessons.
- Incorporate practical use of technology in lessons and classroom activities, such as smartboard internet, video animations and computers.
- Motivate students by using different strategies such as picture charts and scaffolding to increase students' success rate.
- Provide modifications using differentiated instruction strategies for learners from various backgrounds, including English Language Learners (ELL) and students with IEPs.

Department of Education

P23Q@ Lifeline Child Development Center

Crisis Paraprofessional

Queens Village, NY

September 2018- Present

- Work closely with physical, speech and occupational therapists to implement the proper therapy in a classroom setting.
- One to one (crisis paraprofessional) with a particular student, whom are emotional health, safety and working on social skills and behavior
- Instruct students the proper way to write letters and numbers with students
- Collaborate with classroom teacher to plan and schedule lessons promoting learning and student engagement
- Circular 6 is to ensure students safety after work hours during transition to their bus
- After school program to aid students in extracurricular activities; art and creative writing

P23Q @ Saint Mary's Hospital for Children

Paraprofessional

Bayside, NY

January 2014-August 2018

- Assisted students independently or in small groups with class lessons
- Helped 5 children increase reading proficiency from a 1 level to a 3 using eight cell assistance device (Talk Tech) as assistance
- Work on hand over hand projects involving different types of textures
- Monitor trachea students and make sure they are comfortable

Stephanie Belizaire-Desamours

1233 5th Street West Babylon, NY 11704

C: (646) 287-7889

Sbelizaire@schools.nyc.gov

---

- Work closely with physical, speech and occupational therapist to implement the proper therapy in a classroom setting.

A Bright Idea Educational Services
Tutor

Rosedale, NY
September 2015-June 2017

- Teaching elementary students the proper way to put words in full sentences, summarize stories and learning about story elements
- Work with children one on one to help improve their reading and math level

SKILLS

- Bilingual - fluent in Haitian Creole
- Differentiated Instruction
- Classroom Management
- Self-starter and Proficient in Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel Windows XP, Excel
- Typing Speed: 45 wpm

INTERESTS

Maranatha Bears Pathfinder Club- Director from 2014-2016 teaching children from ages 10-15 about God and survival skills.

WORKSHOPS

School Violence Intervention And Prevention, Child Abuse Identification, Autism and Dignity for All Students Act (DASA)

EDUCATION

Alliance University, New York, NY      Special Education      Master of Science
GPA: 3.86–Summa Cum Laude

NYIT, Old Westbury, NY      Communication Arts      Bachelor of Fine

Arts