Soccer Instructor Application Letter

Dear Togetherhood- Team,

I am writing to apply for the Soccer Instructor position with your organization. I was excited to learn about this opportunity to teach soccer to elementary school students in various schools, buildings, and communities across New York City.

I am a 22 year old boy from Germany and have played soccer at a high level throughout my life. I am currently on a soccer scholarship at Alliance University, where I have further developed my skills and passion for the sport. My experience in the second highest league in Germany has helped me develop discipline and a deep understanding of soccer.

In addition, I have worked with small kids before, which has given me valuable experience in working with younger students. I was an Assistant Coach back in Germany, where we reached the semi-finals and won our league. I also completed an internship at a kindergarten, where I had the opportunity to interact with young children and further hone my skills in creating age-appropriate curriculum.

As a Soccer Instructor, I will be responsible for conceiving and creating an age appropriate curriculum for my class. I will also specify the equipment needed to run the course successfully, ensuring that the school can purchase it for me if necessary. I understand the importance of arriving at class on time, and I am committed to providing a memorable experience for the children in my class to help them grow and develop a passion for soccer.

In addition, I am eager to help children understand the impact of soccer, teamwork, and how it has helped shape me as a person. I believe that I can inspire children to develop their skills and love for soccer, while also teaching them important values such as teamwork, leadership, and sportsmanship.

Thank you for considering my application. I am excited about the opportunity to teach soccer to young students in New York City and would be honored to be a part of your team. I look forward to discussing this opportunity further.

Sincerely,

Nico Fabian Kaczmarczyk
