

Ariele D'Amil

Friday, April 28th, 1pm

I will be doing my presentation on my father who came from Panama (central America) at the age of 12 in 1972. When he came he didn't speak a word of English and the original plan was that they were only going to temporarily visit the United States but end up staying.