

Michelle Murray

Alliance University

April 13, 2023

CONCEPT MAP

A 69-year-old male with stroke with left side weakness.

Patient: J M

NURSING DIAGNOSIS

Related to having stroke the patient was weak left side.

fall precaution.

ASSESSMENT

Patient alert and oriented x 1

Patient has left side weakness.

No known allergies

Patient AHCD is Full code.

Patient is incontinent and needs assistant to be changed.

DOCUMENT DATA

Patient has stroke and has a left side weakness.

Patient received OT and PT

Patient has Peg Tube to receive Glucerna 1.2 Continuous

Patient should receive water 250 ml every 6 hrs.

BP:124/75; TEMP: 97.4; P: 75; RR 18; O2: 96

Nursing Intervention

Patient was given ADL and Total care.

Patient IV was flushed, and Normal Saline was connected.

Patient was given prescribed medication.

Patient was feed a puree diet.

EXPECTED OUTCOME

Patient bed was in semi-Fowler position to prevent Aspiration.

Patient is changed to prevent pressure ulcer.

Patient received prescribed medication.

Patient will display stable vital signs.

EVALUATION

Pt goal was not met because I left before discharge.