HOURS SPENT / TASKS & ACTIVITIES	REFLECTIONS JOURNALING THOUGHTS PROCESSING
2 hours spent in meeting with the two chaplains that supervises me. 1hour spent going over some reading materials on chaplaincy 3 hours spent visiting patients 2 hours spent with mentor	Today I started my day sitting with the two chaplains that supervises me. We were discussing my progress. I was given an assignment to write about what the bible says about illness with supporting verses. I also had to write about how I would minister to people of all faith. The discussion was mainly about the assignment and what I learnt from it. I reflected on Jesus on how he healed the sick. I looked at Peter and John and how they continued the work of Jesus. I was asked how the disciples motivate me in my role as a chaplain. While I thought about what Jesus said to the disciples about doing greater works than him, I reflected on what I am called to do. This discussion really set me thinking. It shed some light on how I approach people of all faith. The reading materials were very helpful for me. I appreciate the fact that I am being trained to work in the field as a chaplain. I am getting the experience I need. What I enjoy the most is being able to work with people of different religious belief. I work closely with a rabi and someone who claims multiple religions. The diversity is a good blend. Every time I visit the patients, I encounter different learning experiences. It feels good to know that you can always expect something new.

MEETING(S) WITH MENTOR(S) TOPICS OF DISCUSSION REFLECTIONS
Meeting with my mentor we discussed my progress and how I was feeling about the internship. We also discussed what are some new things I can do as I continue my field education. My mentor was very interested in the courses I choose for summer semester. She looked at the registration list and advised me what will help me along in my journey to becoming chaplain. She also spent time with me talking about finding somewhere to apply for my CPE unit. Every time I meet with my mentor, I feel more encouraged. She is definitely an inspiration for me.
