

FIELD EDUCATION
The Log

Week #   3  

Hours This Week:   12   Total Hours:   36   / 120

| HOURS SPENT / TASKS &amp; ACTIVITIES  | REFLECTIONS    JOURNALING    THOUGHTS    PROCESSING  |
|--|---|
| 12 hours- time was spent armor bearing for my overseer throughout the entire Sunday. This meant I had to make preparations for the overseer prior to his arrival to the church. This included cleaning the church and his office. During the start of service I prepare his items for his sermon. Throughout the services when there is an altar call I work the altar and follow his movements and go behind any individual that he lays his hands upon. After service, I stay by his side to see if there is anything that he needs, while having conversations with visitors/new members that are looking to have a conversation with him. | God has been dealing with me in the area of remaining consistent and obedient to His instructions. Since the ending of last year God has instructed me to meet Him at 5:00am everyday. If I can be honest with myself, that has not been the case. I would hear my alarm, turn it off, and go back to bed. When I finally get up for the day, I'm consumed with conviction, thinking about another missed opportunity. This is not an easy task, but I have to be diligent if I want to receive what God has for me at this time and season. |

FIELD EDUCATION
The Log

| MEETING(S) WITH MENTOR(S)    TOPICS OF DISCUSSION    REFLECTIONS |
|---|
|---|

|  |
|--|
| This particular meeting with my overseer/mentor included a strong teaching on prioritizing the call of God on one's life. This kind of teaching hits hard, because when I think of the times where I let life's affairs distract me, all that comes to mind is the call of God and the direction He's leading me to. As the call of God gets louder, I have to make sure that adhere and focus to it. |
|--|