Week #   5  

Hours This Week:   12   Total Hours:   60   / 120

HOURS SPENT / TASKS & ACTIVITIES	REFLECTIONS    JOURNALING    THOUGHTS    PROCESSING
12 hours- time was spent armor bearing for my overseer throughout the entire Sunday. This meant I had to make preparations for the overseer prior to his arrival to the church. This included cleaning the church and his office. During the start of service I prepare his items for his sermon. Throughout the services when there is an altar call I work the altar and follow his movements and go behind any individual that he lays his hands upon. After service, I stay by his side to see if there is anything that he needs, while having conversations with visitors/new members that are looking to have a conversation with him.	This week in particular I was reflecting more on being consistent in my prayer life and meeting God at the time He said to meet Him. Life can be so draining at times- serving at my church, work, school work, maintaining a healthy marriage- that by the time I need to keep my part of meeting God, I can be so tired and won't fulfill. It's in these moments that I need to look to God to teach me the ways of balancing in a healthy manner.

This particular meeting with my overseer/mentor was a self reflection on where I am in the ministry and where I can see myself playing more of a part in the church.
