

FIELD EDUCATION
The Log

Week # 8

Hours This Week: 12 Total Hours: 96 / 120

HOURS SPENT / TASKS & ACTIVITIES	REFLECTIONS JOURNALING THOUGHTS PROCESSING
10 hours- time was spent armor bearing for my overseer throughout the entire Sunday. This meant I had to make preparations for the overseer prior to his arrival to the church. This included cleaning the church and his office. During the start of service I prepare his items for his sermon. Throughout the services when there is an altar call I work the altar and follow his movements and go behind any individual that he lays his hands upon. After service, I stay by his side to see if there is anything that he needs, while having conversations with visitors/new members that are looking to have a conversation with him.	This week I started to reflect on the progress I have made in my spiritual walk, and how external factors that may have had an effect on me in the past don't have much of an effect on me now. I believe this is because the concept of death to the flesh has become a loud ring in my ear, and as much as I wish there was another way to glory, this is requisite in following Jesus.

FIELD EDUCATION
The Log

MEETING(S) WITH MENTOR(S) TOPICS OF DISCUSSION REFLECTIONS

This particular meeting with my overseer/mentor revolved around the topic of success of a ministry, and the true markings of one. I was intrigued by his view regarding this, as he pointed out that the success is the core around the leadership, and used the example of Joshua who would communicate to the core leadership, who communicated to the masses.
