Week # 9

Hours This Week: 12 Total Hours: 108 / 120

HOURS SPENT / TASKS & ACTIVITIES	REFLECTIONS JOURNALING THOUGHTS PROCESSING
12 hours- time was spent armor bearing for my overseer throughout the entire Sunday. This meant I had to make preparations for the overseer prior to his arrival to the church. This included cleaning the church and his office. During the start of service I prepare his items for his sermon. Throughout the services when there is an altar call I work the altar and follow his movements and go behind any individual that he lays his hands upon. After service, I stay by his side to see if there is anything that he needs, while having conversations with visitors/new members that are looking to have a conversation with him.	This week was rather a tough one for me. I had a lot to manage with school and work, not to mention marriage and ministry. Sometimes it feels like I'm doing all of this managing but no fruit is bearing. I have to constantly fight that thought with the affirmation that I have changed and grown for the better.

MEETING(S) WITH MENTOR(S) TOPICS OF DISCUSSION REFLECTIONS

This particular meeting with my overseer/mentor was rather interesting, as it centered around his views on priorities regarding God, family (marriage) and ministry. His reference was the story in which Peter told Jesus that he has forsaken all, including his wife, to follow after Him. This provoked a lot of thought in the meeting, and it made me wonder what the views of those in a Christian household would be.
