FINAL RESPONSE PAPER

The inspiration of this class is knowing that Simpson's understanding that Jesus will not return until the gospel is preached all over the world, therefore he was willing to go and spread the gospel. Just like Simpson because of family obligations, I am unable to travel the world to spread the gospel. Therefore, I will spread the gospel in the neighborhood I live in, I will spread it to my neighbors, coworkers, and people I pass as I go on life's journey letting them know about Jesus. According to Simpson doctrine Christ will not return until everyone knows about Jesus, but the investigation shows that millions of people still have not heard about Jesus.

The significance of the Fourfold Gospel was Simpson's insight and career as pastor and then founder of the Alliance. It appeared that Simpson had organized a mission which was to expand the gospel of Jesus to every denomination and was essentially founded the Gospel Tabernacle. The theological knowledge was impressive with a credibility requirement for the great new organization that was being developed. Simpson felt that he was being called by God to be a minister and to spread the gospel of Jesus to the world. Simpson ministered through his writing and pastoring the Gospel Tabernacle which was the contribution of his life. The true value of his contribution that is being focused on is his theology on the essential work to take the word of God to everyone. The work of an organized theologian by taking all of God's revelation to the people and by building it from the beginning to the end carefully.

I sense God leading me to be a nurse to be able to demonstrate the life and works of Jesus Christ, just as Simpson did through his books and sermons. I will do this by taking care of the patients to the best of my ability, by showing love and compassion. God does not require that all men ought to be pastors unless they are called rather to a way of expressing yourself in a unique way. Over the years of trying to accomplish my goal of being called to be a nurse, I have encountered obstacles, but I am determined to overcome these obstacles and move on to my goal to become a nurse. I am assuming that God brought me to Alliance University, to have a renewed mind to know that God is with me.

My mission in my life is to bring people to Christ and participate in his redemptive work while as a nurse. As a nurse the life I live, people should be able to see Christ in me, to give people the understanding that the kingdom of God is the eternal hope. As a missionary I want to live a life, that shows an example of the Christ that is living in me, not just to tell others about Jesus, but to walk in the newness of Christ in my life by giving myself completely to him. I would reflect on the brokenness in my life and aim towards my goal to be a successful nurse. My mission is to get closer to God and to experience more of his endless abundance to accomplish all I can in his name.

God is calling me to be productive in all I do, through the familiar solitude, silence, and stillness of God's plan for my life as a nurse. Regardless of the obstacle of my life such as failure and fall, that is when God will pick me up. I will be able to relate to God by experiencing my calling of being a nurse, God will strengthen me through all my endeavors and spiritual formation. To have a true fellowship with God to bring people to have a relationship with Jesus Christ, this is my calling to spread the gospel. According to Ephesians 4 vs 11 - 13 states, "And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelist; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ.” God call each of us to do different task and we must live our lives to speak loudly and represents the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Attending Alliance University is a community that focus on the gospel of Christ, and this will influence me to be able to live a life in a spiritual formation in this environment. This stage of openness occurs with the assurance that all will be offered to others. The choice I make in accepting the gift, grace and forgiveness of God made in my life. By connecting my faith to accept the gracious offering given by Christ is the acceptance of Jesus’ request for my life and I say yes to him. In the journey of having God’s love, I have learned that I need not compare myself to others, but to see firsthand the love that God have for me, who is his child by having increase when I come to him in prayer and fasting.

In conclusion my mission and calling for my life is having a relationship with God and to be able to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ. Through prayer and fasting I can be an instinctive and productive deep in my heart to have a longing commitment to God. Philippians 4 vs 13 states, “I can do all things through Christ which strengthened me.” This process of my calling is an emotional mission to do things that are impossible, but it is possible with God. My mission is to work to please God, by surrendering my life completely to him.
