

Durotimi Tijani

Music Business

10-point Response

5/2/2023

This video teaches you ways to get your music placed in TV and film. It opens up with looking into the staff of a production you are interested in. The things that are looked for are the three job titles. They are listed as sound supervisor, composer agent, or a music manager. These are the positions that determine the music and sound effects that go on TV productions. This video provided good information to refer to in regards to taking the necessary steps to get your music on different platforms.