4. You are working with Joe when he tells you that he is really frustrated with his current services. He says he doesn't like his staff or his housemates and wants to call his case manager to complain and asks for your help to call. What should you do?
 - a. Do nothing, he's just venting.
 - ☒ b. Help him call the case manager.
 - c. Tell him his case manager is busy and probably doesn't want to talk to him.

Why? Because it's his right to chose

Who his staff or housemates should be.

5. Ramona lives in her own apartment and receives support services from staff 2-3 times/week for a few hours at a time. When you go to work with her on Tuesday she tells you that she had a disagreement with the staff who was working with her on Sunday. She told you that the staff person loaned $5 from her at Target and when she asked for it back the staff person swore at her, told her she was stupid, and left. Is this abuse as defined by the Vulnerable Adult Act?
 - ☒ a. Yes
 - b. No

If NO, why?

Name:

Jerry K. Thompson

If YES, then what could/should you do?

- Contact the house supervisor or on-call person and let them know about the situation, they will determine if it is abuse and contact (or not contact) the Common Entry Point. If they don't contact them I will get a letter and I can choose to contact the CFP myself.
- Contact the staff person and ask them what happened before you report this to the supervisor.
- Contact the Common Entry Point to report the situation.
- Document it in the staff notebook, but don't report it to anyone.
