Description of the person's status
Health: Dan has continued to have good health through this last year. What is currently important to the person and for the person: Things that are important to Dan are having opportunities to interact with his family and friends, his house, working, all of the staff at PAI, and positivity. Things that are important for Dan are remaining busy, having the opportunity to work at his job, interacting with friends and family, and having support so that he can remain as independent as possible. Status of social relationships and natural supports: Dan is an open and friendly person and maintains consistent relationships at home with his family and his Lifeworks supports, at PAI with his friends and staff, and at Lifetime Fitness (his place of employment) with his coworkers. Recent inclusion and participation in the community: Dan has recently been on outings in the community to Pino's Pizza and Wendy's, as Dan enjoys having opportunities to be social in the community when he is not working and has free time at PAI. Dan has spent time working/volunteering at the MC lab, Armory, and of course, his current employment with Lifetime Fitness. Dan is a dedicated worker and loves having a job to go to that allows him to use his skills and be social. New or ongoing opportunities for the development and exercise of functional and age-appropriate skills, decision making and choice, personal advocacy, and communication: Dan continues to decide how many classes and which classes he would like to take at PAI when he is not working at his community-based job with Lifetime Fitness. Dan also continues to choose where he wants to go on each community outing. Status of the person's civil and legal rights: Dan exercises his rights at PAI and does not have any rights restrictions. Dan remains under guardianship through his mother, Carol Petersdorf. Other information as requested by the support team, please indicate: N/A
