

PAI Mandated Reporting: Maltreatment of Minors

LMS Course Quiz

Name:

Jennifer Toro

Date:

11/7/22

Maltreatment of Minors- Course Video

MN Maltreatment of Minors Act Video

1. Which of the following is not included in the Maltreatment of Minors Act:
  - Physical Abuse
  - Egregious Harm
  - Sexual Abuse
  - Financial Exploitation
2. According to MN Statute 260E, physical harm to another such as hitting, slapping, kicking, pinching, biting, corporal punishment, threat of physical harm (may include weapon), assault in the 1st-5th degrees would be considered which of the following:
  - Verbal Abuse
  - Emotional Abuse
  - Physical Abuse
  - Sexual Abuse
3. True or False: The Maltreatment of Minors Act only protects children who have a disability.
  - True
  - False
4. Which of the following is a sign of emotional abuse?
  - Bruises
  - Excessively withdrawn, fearful, or anxious about doing something wrong
  - Stained underclothing
  - Cuts
5. Neglect can include which of the following?
  - Preventing a child from getting an education
  - Hitting a child
  - Swearing at a child
  - Slapping a child
6. True or False: As a mandated reporter, I am only required to report maltreatment I have seen with my own eyes.
  - True
  - False

7. Who is considered a minor?
- Someone who is younger than 18 years old
  - A person younger than 18 years old only if they have a disability
  - Individuals between 10-17
  - Anyone under 21
8. You are working with a 14-year-old Jake, who tells you his uncle slapped him across the face last night, but you don't see any marks or bruising. You should:
- Remind him that lying can get people in serious trouble
  - Report it as abuse
  - Call Jake's uncle to get his side of the story
  - See if he ever talks about getting slapped again to see if it is a pattern
9. Which of the following can be a sign of neglect?
- Bite marks on a child's arm
  - The child having poor hygiene and inadequate clothing
  - The child having inappropriate sexual knowledge for their age
  - Bruises that are unexplained
10. When a person makes a report they know is not true in order to get someone in trouble it is called what?
- Good Faith Report
  - Planned and Prepared Report
  - Waiver Report
  - False Report
11. Which of the following are potential consequences for not reporting witnessed or suspected maltreatment?
- Being found guilty of a misdemeanor
  - Being found guilty of a gross misdemeanor
  - Being held liable for any damages resulting from your failure to report
  - All of the above
12. Calling a child names, yelling, and swearing at a child are all examples of which type of emotional abuse?
- Rejection
  - Isolation
  - Corruption
  - Verbal Assault
13. True or False: Children often tell a trusted person about maltreatment they experienced, giving accurate and clear information so I should only report if the child tells me about specific occurrences of maltreatment.
- True
  - False

14. True or False: Mental injury can affect a child's ability to function within a normal range of performance and behaviors.
- True
 False
15. If you suspect maltreatment of a minor, what should you do?
- Ask a coworker what they think before reporting it
 Talk to the alleged perpetrator about the allegations so you can get their side of the story
 Report it per state laws and company policies
 Wait it out to see if there is more evidence
16. True or False: If you are unsure if a situation is reportable, you should not report it. You don't want to get someone in trouble for no reason.
- True
 False
17. Which of the following could be an indicator of abuse?
- A child who has changes in behavior
 A child who seems fearful of their caregiver
 A child who runs away
 All of the above
18. When a person reports suspected maltreatment to officials, telling the truth and providing all of the information you have, they are making what type of report?
- Report in False Origin
 Report in Harm's Way
 Report of Good Faith
 Report of Hope and Thought
19. True or False: Emotional abuse can damage a child's brain as it develops.
- True
 False
20. Types of maltreatment include:
- Neglect
 Physical Abuse
 Emotional Abuse
 All of the Above
21. If a parent decides that school isn't important and doesn't provide education to their child, would you report this as neglect by the caregiver?
- No. As their parent, they can choose what is best for their child.
 Yes. It is considered neglect to not provide a child with an education.
 Maybe. It depends on why they are not going to school.

22. Who is considered a mandated reporter?
- People who are legally required to report suspected maltreatment due to their profession
  - People who feel like they should do the right thing
  - Someone who wants to get their neighbor in trouble
  - A person who likes to get attention from calling the police
23. What is one way you can help prevent abuse?
- Building trusting relationships with the people you support
  - Remember to clock in each day
  - Keep your distance from the people you support
  - Ignore reports of fear because they are probably lying
24. True or False: I will need additional training from my company to ensure I am trained on my state's specific rules and company policies.
- True
  - False
25. Staff should report all suspected or known incidents of maltreatment immediately which is defined as within ___ hours.
- 12
  - 24
  - 48
  - There is no time limit as long as the maltreatment gets reported
26. Which of the following is correct for reporting the maltreatment of a minor?
- You need to call child protection or law enforcement within 48 hours.
  - You must make a verbal report to child protection or law enforcement within 24 hours and a written report within 3 days.
  - You must write a report immediately and send it to child protection.
  - You must call in a verbal report and then send a written report within a week.
27. Which of the following is a sign of physical abuse?
- Missing money
  - Contracting a sexually transmitted infection
  - Unexplained bruises, welts, or cuts
  - All of the above
28. True or False: A parent who shows little concern for their child or blames the child for their own problems may be an indicator of child maltreatment.
- True
  - False