Writing the Self-Management Assessment - Virtual Classroom

Date: 5/5/2022 10:00 - 5/5/2022 11:00

The Self-Management Assessment (SMA) tends to be one of the most incorrectly written documents in a person's file. Knowing how to write a compliant and thorough SMA is important not only to avoid licensing violations, but to also adequately reflect the person's skills, abilities, and areas where support is needed. This course will give you the skills you need to write an SMA as required for Intensive Services under 245D, including their required timelines. We will help you avoid common SMA errors and to feel confident in your documentation.
