Incorrectly filling out the 6790C (Family Residential Services/Community Residential Services financial form) can lead to major ramifications including being underpaid for the services you are providing or potentially committing fraud by over reporting your services. Not sure where the numbers for the 6790C form come from? Or how these numbers determine your rate? This class will explain the how and why of this form and give you guidance on how you need to be determining the correct responses for your services. Whether you're a Community Residential Services (CRS) or Family Residential Services (FRS) provider or a case manager, this course will be beneficial for you.
