

Materials: paper and book

Hypothesis: the objects will fall differently

Results:

The book fell before the flat paper

The book and wadded paper hit the floor at the same time

Conclusion: air resistance decides how fast an object falls