

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.

Shielding

1. Draw an outline of a shield on a large piece of paper.
2. Draw a circle in the middle of your shield and write the word 'symbols' at the top of the circle.
3. Divide the remaining portion of the shield into four equal parts.
4. Label the parts: setting, plot, theme, and irony.
5. Choose a MAIN character from The Sign of the Beaver.
6. In the setting section, describe the places/ settings the character encountered in the novel.
7. In the plot section, write a summary of the events involving the character.
8. In the theme section, write a message the character would like to give to the world. If he or she had a megaphone and a chance to tell the whole world something, what would it be?
8. In the irony section, write a few sentences that tell how the character is really very different (opposite) of how he or she first appears to others.
9. In the symbol section, draw or attach five objects that reveal different facets of the character's personality.
10. Your shield is due Friday, May 5th. You may be as creative as you choose. This activity should be FUN but requires great planning and TIME! Your final product should be of the highest quality.