

Beowulf Reading 2 questions

1. Shield Sheafson was a man of great strength that that loved to seek fighting. Sheild would always beat his foes but was a good king in a sense that he cared for his people.

Basically, a pirate that went to mead benches and caused trouble, but described as a good king.

2. Ring gives take place to show great loyalty and honor

He gives them rings to show loyalty and buys their trust.

3. The dragon in the hobbit is trying to protect the treasure and keep it safe for himself while the king is meant to share the treasure and give it as gifts.

4. The king kept treasures there to show all they had done

5. That they will turn against each other and kill.

Killing among in laws will destroy them

6. Grindle is annoyed and in anger from the happiness and the joy from signing. The noise stirs up anger causing him to go on a rampage.

7. They are singing about this world about God and all he has given them.

8. He's a monster descended from Cain the first Kin-killer. Showing the independent doom of the town from kin-killing.

9. They both loved to cause conflict and fight and destroy mean benches.

10. The shielding sing songs about creation and give thanks to God but ultimately there is still trouble in their heart.

In times of good they praise but in bad times they fall apart and are lost just like this broken world.

11. He is a very mainly man that is cultured and very strong with armor. He's very great and has gone through and been tested with many battles.

12. I truly have no clue. As I grow in my reading and learn what Anglo-Saxon culture, I will be able to determine more but for now, I do not know.

The dwarfish love, Beowulf as a character, the creation and gold and craftsmanship of the

Beowulf reading 3 questions

1. The poet is appealing to the sense of sight and everything that the men see.

The sounds of the men as the light catches their armor and reflects of it.

2. I would guess the meaning of his name Bee-Wulf shows that he has great power in such a small form. Like a bee, its small and crafty but has a strong sting. The wolf part shows his true power and quickness. Also shows how wise he is and how he carries himself throughout the book.

3. Beowulf has had some vicious fights and has good experience with fighting. He said he was fighting and killed 5 beasts and has killed plenty of sea monsters with his bare hands.

4. He intends to fight Grendel by going into the mead hall and waiting for Grendel to come. Knowing Grendel hates the sound of happiness and joy they plan to make him come to them thinking there will be no battle.

Hand to hand fight against Grendel.

5. Beowulf says that he will do everything he can to win the battle, but it is only up to God who will win the fight.

A deemed judgement by God.

6. Beowulf's father Hrothgar and stayed with him while he had nowhere to go so Beowulf wants to help them because he helped his father.

7. I feel like he's just worried that Beowulf is going to cause more trouble and can't beat Grendel. Or he might be jealous and envy his bravery and attributes.

He's motivated by envy; he's bothered by Beowulf even showing up and being admired by everyone.

8. It talked about how the word Wyrð is the Saxon word for fate that's all I saw.

Beowulf found a troll's nest which relates to the hobbit.