Thomas Paine

By:Jordan M.

Thomas Paine's Birth

Thomas Paine was born in 1737, February 9. He was born at Thetford,Norfolk England. His parents were Frances Cocke and Joseph Paine.
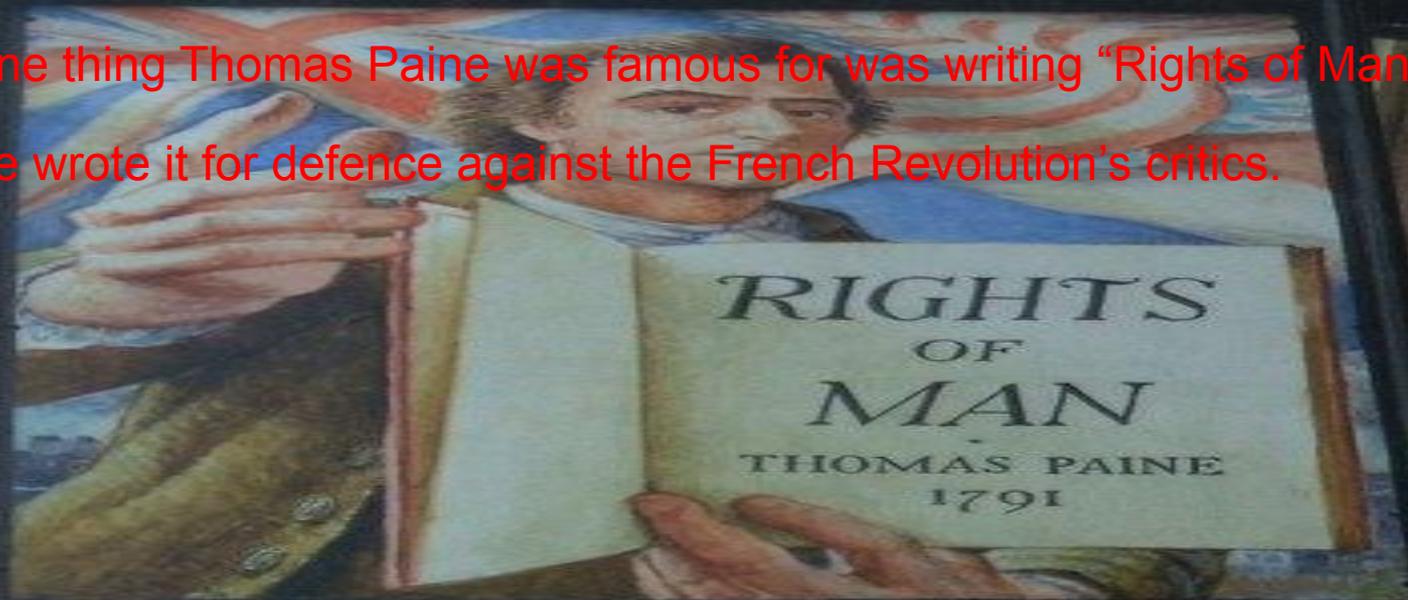

Thomas Paine's Childhood

Thomas attended Thetford grammar school at a time where no compulsory education existed. He briefly served as a privateer before returning to Britain when he was 19 years old.

What's Thomas Paine famous for?

One thing Thomas Paine was famous for was writing "Rights of Man" (1791).

He wrote it for defence against the French Revolution's critics.

Interesting facts about Thomas Paine

He was an English born founding father,Political Activist,and Philosopher.

After multiple failed attempts he finally wrote "Common Sense".

Thomas Paine's Death

Thomas Paine died in 1809,June 8 (age 72)

Genre and Quote

Thomas Paine's Genre was Philosophical Literature.

Quote from "Common Sense" "Independence is my happinessess and i view things as they are, without regard to place or person; my country is the world, and my religion is to do good"