

Jordan Martin

Mrs. Wright

American Literature

29 November 2023

How the Scarlet Letter affected Pearl

In the scarlet letter Pearl is one of the main characters of her moms sin but how does that affect her? We will take a deeper look at how it affects her mentally and physically.

1. Pearl won't listen until her mom has the A on her bosom
2. Pearl cannot socialize
3. Pearl is bullied because of her mom's sin

We will take a deeper look at how it affects her mentally and physically with these 3 problems

Pearl will not listen to her mom without the scarlet letter here are some examples why and how.

1. Pearl is in the river bank as her mom throws away the scarlet letter and when Hester calls Pearl does not come
2. Pearl screams and cries after seeing her mom with the letter a gone
3. "I will call for her Pearl Pearl" but pearl ignored her

Pearl is bullied because her mom is an outcast so she must live with it as well here are some examples

1. Anytime pearl goes to the city she is called and "elf" or "demon"
2. She throws mud at the other kids as they were being mean to her
3. "Pearl was born an outcast a product of sin"

Pearl is a social outcast because of her mom here are some examples

1. Pearl has no friends as she lives in the forest and her mom is a social outcast
2. Pearl makes imaginary friends and plays with them since she doesn't have any real friends
3. "Became the playmate of the lonely infant"