1. The murder of Hamlet and Ophelia's father
2. Everyone is spying on one another and it leads to polonius's death

Reading 23

1. "Answer Key"- The gravedigger scene is oddly comic when compared with the rest of the tragedy. The clue seems to lie in the details the gravedigger provides when he tells Hamlet that he's been digging graves since the day Hamlet was born. I think the point of this is so that Hamlet could see his own life from begging to end.
2. Poison has been poured into an ear, in wine, and with a sword
3. people killing
