

Maci Bell

Bell 1

Mrs. Wright

American Literature

13 February 2024

The Brave and Loving Dog Named Spot

Have you ever had a dog go through hard times because of how much they love you? Spot was a brave and loving dog owned by people who did not love him. He loved being with his owners and always came back because he is brave and wants their love. Spot did not let the hard times keep him from what he wanted or who he wanted to be with. "Spot crawled out of the hospital water-hole, licked off the water, bit out the ice formed between his toes, trotted up the Bank, whipped a big New-Foundland to the Gold Commence." (pg.16) From this he was brave and fought through. "If we sold him once, we sold him twenty times. He always comes back." (pg.10) This shows how Spot loved and cared for his owners even if they did not feel the same About him. Even though Spot was not treated well, he was still a brave and loving dog. He was brave enough to fight the hard times because he loved so much more.