

Ty Gonzalez

Reading Questions 4-7 Pride and Prejudice

Reading Question 4

1. Jane Austen thinks it's admirable that Elizabeth said no to Mr. Collins.

Austen is clearly showing us how difficult being an unmarried woman would be.

2. They don't trust each other as much or maybe they understand each other more. Elizabeth realized that when Charlotte said she wanted to know the least amount of knowledge on the persons she is marrying like there bad quality's was not a joke of a statement.

Elizabeth's opinion of her friend, Charlotte drops even though Charlotte did not change at all.

3. Elizabeth just wanted to disagree with Mr. Darcy. We also see that Mr. Darcy has some wisdom.

Elizabeth is not good at judging people's characters.

Reading question 5

1. We learn that Wickham is falling for another girl. Elizabeth does not have a good judge of his character she is very inconsistent in this department.
2. Jane realizes that Miss Bingley was not really her friend and that it was all a show for political and or social reasons.
3. Their marriage is doing good in a social setting. They married for social reasons not for love.

They are both ridiculous people.

Reading questions 6

1. We see pride in most characters, we see people like Mr. Darcy or Mr. Collins who have a lot of wealth are prideful. We see prejudice played out when Elizabeth blinding prejudices that she was offended by Mr. Darcy and Flattered by Mr. Wickham.

Prejudice is displayed by Elizabeth refusing him.

2. In this sections as well as earlier we see that pride is how we view ourselves and vanity is how we want others to view us.

Quote on pg. 35 in book and answers on 468

3. We see him as a more desirable character because he is unrelated to the problems of his family.

He is not protecting them and he is leaving them, his daughters exposed.

4. She realizes she is not so good at telling peoples characters.

She realizes that she is blind.

5. I do not think Mr. Darcy is to blame.

This question is personal opinion

Reading questions 7

1. We learned that Lydia is good in humor and spirit.

We see that Mrs. Bennet is exactly like Lydia. He exposes his wife to the ridicule of her children and his children to the ridicule of the world.

2. He does not really care or give any reasons why she would be in danger.

He thinks that she does not have enough money to attract a gold digger. Other women around to be a temptation to the men.

3. I think Mr. Darcy has been right all along and that the things we have learned about Lydia, Mr. and Mrs. Bennet have vindicated Mr. Darcys opinion.

This question is a matter of personal opinion.