

Reading Questions 4

1. The story shows us that being an unmarried lady is hard to be in this time. Elizabeth doesn't want to rush a marriage if it isn't out of love. Which is very mature.
2. Once Charlotte gets married, Elizabeth is confused because she thinks she knows her best friend well, and now she sees that she doesn't. Even though Elizabeth thought she had changed. Charlotte never did, it was Elizabeth's expectations that threw her off.
3. It turns out that Mr. Darcy had a better judgment of character than Elizabeth. Elizabeth let a lot cloud her judgment which Mr. Darcy noticed and then was able to see better than Elizabeth.

Reading Questions 5

1. Wickham became less friendly to Elizabeth and flirted with other girls a lot. But Elizabeth didn't think badly of him. When Charlotte married it altered her opinion of her, but not of Mr. Wickham.
2. She found out that Miss Bingley was a mean girl. She just didn't want to be in people's lives. So she would not answer letters and didn't return for visits in a few weeks. She doesn't want to
3. Charlotte had an open mind about marriage, so from her view it's going pretty well. But I would say they get along pretty good

Reading Questions 6

1. Darcy is pride. He thinks highly of his own opinions. Prejudice is shown through Elizabeth. She turns down Darcy. Only because her "judgment" of character was wrong.

2. Pride is what Darcy is showing. Vanity is what blinded Elizabeth and made her unable to see the characters of both Darcy and Wickham.
3. Mr. Bennet has detached himself from the bad behavior of his family. But that exposes hurt to his family.
4. Elizabeth realizes she has been blind this whole time. She sees that it was Wickham all along being nice.
5. I don't think so everything he did was necessary. He was a good dude.

Reading Questions 7

1. Mr. Bennet was like Lydia. He was taken by youth and beauty and followed the illusion of good humor and beauty produce.
2. He thinks he doesn't have enough money to attract a gold digger, even as a flirt she won't be much of a temptation to anyone when there are so many other women.
3. Elizabeth has to realize her errors and faults.