Talking with the person and getting their feedback is vital to your progress of hearing from the Lord. This is how we learn to minister a prophetic word to someone. To speak a word of prophecy should be “second nature” to us!

Did you have an opportunity to share the word? If so, what feedback did you receive from the person? How do you feel God led you to handle the word you received?

Yes, I did have an opportunity to share a word. I asked the person was the word that was given relevant to their situation? They told me that they were just trying to digest it to see how it fit their particular situation. The person then being to tell me the situation, as soon as they told me I began to think back to the word that I received from the Lord to give them. To me it was clear that the word was indeed from the Lord, because many parts of the word gave clear details of the reality of the situation and the comfort that God wanted this person to have. This person needed the insight that God gave through this word. They were in a dark place and didn't have the light that they needed to see, and this is what God gave through the word.
