

Note Taking

Plan and Write

Book #4
Breathless

Directions: Listen to information about a topic. While you listen, record the main ideas or key points on the left side of the paper. Pair these key points with supporting information, which you list on the right side of the paper. Use another piece of paper to summarize the information.

M. Rech

THESE ARE THE MAIN POINTS.	THIS INFORMATION SUPPORTS THE MAIN POINTS.
----------------------------	--

1. Lute Jerstad and Barry Bishop prepare for their hike to the peak of Mt. Everest

1. 15°F below zero
2. Camping at 27,450 feet sea level
3. Bishop becomes claustrophobic and they have a stove fire.

2. Bishop and Jerstad begin their hike to the peak.

1. They're sunburned due to the high altitude.
2. They see the summit 2.5 hours into their hike
3. After 7 hours of hiking they reach peak. They don't see other climbers

3. They head back down the mountain descent from the death zone

1. Path is steep and dangerous - Bishop gets his rope caught and has to unhook. He is successful.
2. It's dark when they hear voices of teammates
3. They spend the night with no tent. In morning they are met by more teammates who help them descend.

This is what I learned about _____ (topic) today.

Climbing Everest.