

Potato Float

5-PS1-1. - Develop a model to describe that matter is made of particles too small to be seen.

Engaging content: potato floating in the middle of a glass. Can be preset or demonstrated in class.

“Will a potato float in water?”

Goal: Students understand existence of atomic particles even though we cannot see them.

STEM Integration: Lesson plan incorporates reading, writing, and technology.