

Thank you!

FYI - I needed to change my presentation date to October 8.

Just yesterday I was approved to take an on-site training course October 1-4. This course will help me in developing a lesson plan I am currently working on related to signature management (thermal radiation and camouflage). I was able to incorporate several NASA resources into the lesson plan I have developed thus far.